

CALL FOR NOMINATIONS

Laurence C. Rainey Memorial Scholarship

For a high school senior with aspirations of becoming a social studies teacher

Teachers: Please send a recommendation for a current high school senior who aspires to become a social studies teacher or a profession within the social studies field and espouses the values and drive you believe are essential. Include your name and contact information, the student's name, contact information, and current high school name. Also ask the recommended student to write a short essay detailing his or her future aspirations. You should include this essay along with your recommendation.
